

Our Nation® Pre-/Post-Test

Answer Key:

1. What is an entrepreneur?
  - a. Someone who starts a new business in the hope of making a profit.
2. The three types of resources are:
  - c. Natural, Human, and Capital.
3. To be globally competitive means:
  - a. To compete for business or workers around the world.
4. Two of the categories that should be included on a resume are education and prior work experience.
  - a. True
5. Which of the following workplace skills are in demand by many employers today?
  - d. All of the above.
6. Technology is an example of the following resource.
  - b. Capital
7. People who are comfortable with and easily adapt to new equipment are called:
  - b. Technophiles
8. Jobs that are projected to add substantial numbers of employees to the workforce or affect the growth of other industries are considered.
  - a. High-growth, high-demand jobs.
9. A person that has strong math skills and enjoys building or testing models is best suited for which of the following careers?
  - b. Engineering